Dr W. J. Lee, of Millville, arrived in the city to-day, looking fat and sassy. Doc is well pleased with his new location.—Advertiser, Bonifay.

The stormy conditions of the past week with high southwest and westerly winds, culminated on Tuesday in the heaviest down pour of a year or more. Five inches of rain fell between one a. m. Tuesday morning, and noon, and even more than this is said to have fallen at points between here and the north end of the county. The streams were badly swollen, and bridges carried away in many places. It was with difficulty that the mail from Chipley to Bay Head got through on Tuesday, and some of the mail was badly wet.
